

PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Christopher Paterson

managing director, ALCHEMY Career Management coach, facilitator and key note speaker

Christopher's background covers business psychology, coaching and HR consulting. For over 18 years Christopher has been supporting both individuals and organisations with their talent and career management in Australian, European, US and Asian markets.

Christopher's psychology degree and post graduate studies in Organisational Psychology were completed at Macquarie University (BA Psych, PG DIP Org Psych) and subsequent studies have covered coaching, wellbeing, neuro-leadership and change management.

Christopher joined Morgan & Banks HR Consulting in 1996 before becoming one of the founding members of IPS, an assessment and development firm (later listing on the ASX in 1999 as MXL). Christopher launched an HR consulting and outsourcing business in London in 2000 and after returning to Australia in 2005, he joined Hudson Global Resources in a national role consulting to blue chip organisations on strategic talent management.

Christopher went on to run the NSW Talent Management business of over 30 coaches, consultants and delivery staff providing coaching, outplacement and HR consulting solutions to over 380 clients. As its director, this division achieved regular team and individual awards.

With a passion for supporting career success on an individual and organisational level, Christopher launched ALCHEMY Career Management in 2009. ALCHEMY realises this through career transition, coaching, Wellness@Work™ and change management.

As managing director, Christopher balances his coaching, consulting and workshop facilitation with operation management of the business including the 20 coaches that prove ALCHEMY with its national scope.
