

Pamela Young

author, strategist, change agent, culture specialist

Pamela is a globally experienced executive and consultant who is known for her visionary and strategic thinking, change-agent capability and extensive knowledge of how cultures operate. She is a seasoned leader and a highly engaging speaker.

Pamela has an extensive global career in both consulting and executive management. She has lived and worked in many cultures including Australia, New Zealand, Singapore, the UK, continental Europe and the USA. Her cross-cultural and international experience with global businesses adds richness to her insights and vision for the future of business and society.

She generously shares her experience with people wanting to become inspirational leaders and change agents. She is passionate about helping others to improve their organisations and lives to achieve business growth and personal development as well as delivering diversity.

After returning to Australia she established Growthcurv Pty Ltd to consult on transformation projects, provide strategy and change advisory services and deliver board, CEO and top-team mentoring and coaching. While in London she worked across Europe with leading global institutions including Barclays Bank, Lloyds Bank, Prudential Bache, Winterthur Life, Zurich Financial Services, KPMG Europe and Freshfields Bruckhaus Derringer.

Pamela also has extensive experience working with a range of government organisations including health, medical, education and research sectors, plus a wide range of SMEs.

Pamela is an enthusiastic life-long learner, who keeps actively involved in the community and is interested in contributing to making the world a better place.
